A LETTER FROM PASTOR WADE

Welcome to First Baptist! The Parade of Nations offers a beautiful picture of the nations of the world and the glorious promise that one day people from every tribe and nation will gather around the eternal throne to worship God. Yet, there is still work to be done. As we announce our Christmas World Missions offering goal, how will you give to support the work of missionaries?

We are blessed by our guests and invite you to worship, listen, and respond to the stirring of the Holy Spirit this morning. In appreciation of your visit, we have a gift for you in the office foyer.

Missionary Kathy Daniel has been with us this weekend and will share briefly in worship. Everyone is invited to lunch following worship to hear more from Kathy. I know you will be encouraged by her testimony and service to the Lord.

A special thank you to all who attended and volunteered to make Light the Night a wonderful evening.

Our end of year church conference is next Sunday, November 9. We will enjoy a lunch fellowship after worship before beginning our conference. Several important items are on the agenda including the 2026 Ministry Plan, leadership recommendations, and informational reports. Your participation is critical to the success of our congregational polity. Every tribe!

- Pastor Wade
